1. In 1950 when the Pearl River District Commissioner's Office was established, the Pearl River 6 Military Sub-District was also organized. There have been frequent conflicts between these two organizations over the extermination and pacification of "bandits." YEN Shang-min (0917/1424/3046)¹, Pearl River District Commissioner, has exceeded his power in the past and as a result the Military Sub-District has trouble in controlling the pacified bandits.
2. In 1951, TSENG Sheng was promoted from commander of the 6 Military Sub-District to Deputy Chief of Staff of the Kwangtung Military District. Later, JAO Hsiang-huang (7437/3276/3874)², Political Commissar of the 6 Military Sub-District, went to Canton to complain to TSENG about the actions of YEN. Before the three anti's movement, there was not much that TSENG could do to harm YEN. However, when HUANG I-p'ing (7806/0001/1627)³ went to Shihch'i (113-26, 22-56) to investigate officials and business leaders, he became suspicious of the additional levies which had been imposed in the Pearl River District. YEN was subsequently ordered to Canton for an investigation of the matter. CHENG Shao-k'ang (6774/1421/1660)⁴ is acting District Commissioner in YEN's absence.
3. In March 1952, the Pearl River District Commissioner's Office held an accusation meeting, but very few materials on YEN were received. There will be one or two more attempts to develop information on YEN.

1. [redacted] Comment. [redacted] 1951, reported YEN as Deputy Commissioner, Kwangtung 6 Military Sub-District, with headquarters at Chungshan.

2. [] Comment. According to [] 1951, JAO was DCO, Kwangtung 6 Military Sub-District, Chungshan. 25A1

3. [] Comment. HUANG was reported in [] '51, as leaving Cante
